A DETECTIVE,

Under a Bed, Listened to a Conversation

Which Resulted in the Arrest of Sausage-Maker Luettgert.

Damaging Admissions Made to His Watchman-Another Employe Testifles to the Kind of Liquid in the Vat in Which the Ring Was Found.

CHICAGO, May 26 .- While lying under a bed in the home of Frank Bialk, the former night watchman at the Luettgert factory, one of Capt. Herman Schuetler's detectives, is said to have listened to a conversation between the accused wifemurderer and the watchman. The admissions made by Luettgert on this occasion are said to have caused the immediate arrest of the man. The police expect to prove by Bialk and the detective that Luettgert murdered and disintegrated the body of his wife in the manner claimed by Inspector Schaack and his men.

Bialk was supposed to be ill. Luettgert visited him at his home. The two talked, and the detective listened from his post beneath the bed.

During this interview, it is said Luettgert made a number of damaging admissions, and threatened Bialk with summary vengeance if he did not keep away from the police. Bialk will swear that Luettgert ordered him to remain away from the vatroom on the night of May 1; that twice during the night he sent him out for a bottle of medicine. Upon his return with these articles Luettgert each time opened the barred doors and reached through the opening, took the bottle and hastily closed and barred the door.

The bottle is in the possession of the police. It was found in his sleeping room, unopened, several days after Luettgert's arrest.

CHICAGO, May 26 -In the Leuttgert murder trial Tuesday, Frank Schultz, a smoker in the sausage factory, testified to having assisted in preparing the solution in the vat where the rings alleged to belong to the missing woman were found. As he was removing the chemicals from a barrel, Luettgert, the witness said, told him to be careful or he would burn himself. Some of the chemical in his hands became moist and it burned him. The witness exhibited the scars of these burns.

He said he had never before seen any such substance used in the factory. When water was put on it it turned brown. After the stuff had been put in the vat witness said Luettgert told him he need not bother any further with it, as he (Luettgert) and the watchman would take charge of

On the Monday following Mrs. Luettgert's disappearance Schultz scrubbed out the basement at Luettgert's orders. After the closing of the factory witness said he built one small fire in the factory. When asked if he saw bones in the furnace he said no. On cross-examination witness said this was the first time he had ever been told to sweep and scrub the basement.

IN THE SENATE The Debate on the Tariff Bill Begins-

Aldrich Opens for the Republicans. WASHINGTON, May 26.—SENATE—The de-bate on the tariff bill began in the senate Tuesday with crowded galleries and a large attendance of senators and the tariff leaders of the house. Minor business claimed attention up to 2 p.m., when Senator Aldrich, of Rhode Island, in charge of the tariff bill. had the measure laid before the senate and took the floor for the opening speech. Mr. Aldrich spoke for almost an hour and a quarter. adopting an easy, conversational style. His speech was the official utterance of the finance committee, and in a sense of the republican side of the chamber. Without making invidious distinctions between the two bills, Mr. Aldrich clearly stated as the telief of the finance committee that the house bill would not yield revenue adequate for the needs of the government Mr. Vest (Mo.), one of the democratic members of the finance committee followed with a statement in opposition to the bill. He spoke of the futility of piling up taxes on an overburdened people when there was a balance of $129,00,000 in the treasury. He criticised the schedules in detall, declaring that some of them were designed to be prohibitive. He severely attacked the increase in the lead duty, declaring it was for the benefit of the "Cormorants" of eron, a sliver republican, closed the debate for the day by urging that the protection should be distributed as to mid the farmers. Early in the day Mr. Mallory, the new senator

LESS PEACEFUL

Is the Aspect of Affairs in the Far East.

Turkey Sending Seven Thousand More Troops Into Thessaly.

Porte Preparing a Petition to Be Signed by Inhabitants of Thesasty Praying to Be Piaced Under Turkish Rule-Invaders Driven Back by Greeks.

LONDON, May 26 .- The aspect of eastern affairs is less peaceful. Turkey is sending 7,000 more troops to Thessaly, and it is said that the sultan has promised his ministers not to relax his hold upon that province.

The note of the powers certainly does not yield on a single point and states even that the peace conference must be held at Constantinople and not at Pharsalos, but the sincerity of both Germany and Russia is doubted, and any sign of dissension among the powers makes more obstinacy on the part of the sultan. It is reported from Vienna that Emperor Nicholas has advised King George for his own safety, to appoint a military governor with exceptional powers and to concentrate 8,000 picked troops at Athens. A dispatch to the Daily News from Constantinople says the porte has prepared a petitition in Greek and in Turkish, to be signed by the inhabitants of Thessaly, praying to be placed under the rule of the sultan.

The Athens correspondent of the Standard says the powers have assured Greece that the porte will not be allowed to evade the conditions of the armistice. A dispatch to the Standard from Berlin says the powers, including Batteries-Muliane and Spies: Hahn and Turkey, have assented to the appointment of Prince Francis Joseph of Battenberg as governor general of

> The correspondent of The Times at Athens says:

"The torrent of recrimination, denunciation and bitter invectives which was checked by the fear of the immediate Turkish advance to Athens has broken out afresh, now that this danger has been removed the armistice. The authors war policy, equally with the those who are held responsible for the disasters, are being dragged before the bar of public opinion. So far as the official culprits are concerned, it is believed that the government will appoint a commission of inquiry to punish the guilty. A thorough investigation into the ambulance and commissariat departments will probably entail scandalous disclosures. "The Ethnike Hetairie is bitterly denounced, and the government is urged to seize its funds, to confiscate its stores and arms and to compel it to render an account. The government is not likely to accede to this suggestion, because many persons prominent in political life are closely connected with the organization, and the etaria, conscious of its strength, has decided to remain silent and to preserve its mysterious and invisible character. Possibly smitten with compunction, however, the society has donated 60,000 drachmas for the relief of the Thessalian refugees. This is apparently the best justified item of all its expenditures.

ATHENS, May 26 .- A dispatch from Lamia Tuesday says that 300 Chegs intruded upon the neutral zone, but were driven back by the Greek gendemaria. The Crown Prince Constantine has strongly protested against this intrusion as a violation of the armistice.

VIENNA, May 26 .- The Nue Freie Presse publishes a dispatch from Constantinople Tuesday saying that Germany has finally approved the conditions of peace, and that the identical note of the powers on the subject was presented to the Turkish government

Germany's action is regarded as be ing highly prejudicial to the prospect of a speedy conclusion of peace, as it leads Turkey to believe the powers are disunited and encourages opposi-
